Item III – For Discussion

1. Information on period faculty review
2. Information on faculty workload policies
The term “Period Review” is commonly used at the University of Hawai`i to distinguish this process from the “Tenure and Promotion” process.
Board of Regents Policy 9-13 (b)

• All Faculty shall be evaluated at least every 5 years
• Reviews for reappointment, tenure, promotions, or merit salary increases may be used to satisfy this requirement
• Chancellors and VP for Community Colleges are responsible for developing procedures
Executive Policy E9.203

- Delegates to the Chancellors and the Vice President for Community Colleges the responsibility for development of faculty evaluation procedures.
- In the event a campus or program does not have procedures, a default procedure is set forth in E9.203 (IV).
Tenure & Promotion evaluation criteria is used for the Periodic Review
Faculty Workload Policies
Board of Regents Policy 9-14
Teaching Assignments & Equivalencies for Instructional Faculty

• All Full time faculty at 4 year campuses to teach 24 credit hours/year (Classroom lecture)
• All Full time faculty at Community Colleges to teach 27 credit hours/year (Classroom lecture)
• “Teaching Equivalencies” can be established by Chancellors and VP of Community Colleges to support campus initiatives and activities