

Library Treasures Summer 2022 Scholarships Presentation by Winners

Friday, September 16, 2022
10:00 am – 12:00 pm (in-person)
Hamilton Library Room 306

Winners of the Library Treasures Summer 2022 Scholarships will present their research pieces/creative works that have involved the use of the UHM Library's wide-ranging collections. Please join us to learn about their research experiences and their final outcomes.

10:00 Opening Remark by University Librarian Clem Guthro

10:10 – 12:00 Presentation Session

- Perry Arrasmith (MA in Urban and Regional Planning), "Compounded Frustrations and Generational Shifts: Land, Power, the Constitutional Convention of 1978, and Planning for the Next Hawai'i"
- Clarice Handoko (MA in Sociology), "Pemuda Activism's Adaptive Mechanisms in an Authoritarian Regime: Evidence from Pro-Democracy Newspapers in Indonesia"
- Carissa Chew (PhD in History), "From 'Hybrid' to Hapa: A Mixed-Race History of Hawai'i"
- Maggie Ivanova (MFA in Theatre, Asian Performance – Directing), "Visual Dramaturgy Research on Adapting Haruki Murakami's Dance, Dance, Dance for the Stage"

*The description of winners' projects can be found at:

<https://manoa.hawaii.edu/library/about/news/library-treasures/winners/>