

“Something wicked this way comes...”

MACBETH

AUDITIONS

Auditions: Mon, April 28th 5:30 to 7:30 pm
Tues, April 29th 5:30 to 7:30 pm

Callbacks: Mon, May 5th 6 pm to 9 pm

Where: Mainstage, Kennedy Theatre

Please prepare one Shakespeare monologue for these auditions, between one and two minutes long. If you do not have a piece prepared, we will have a monologue for you to read. You only need to come to one of the days (April 28 or April 29).

IMPORTANT: we need actors who can speak or learn to speak in different languages. This will be a multi-cultural/multi-lingual approach to the play. If you have a monologue in another language, let us know and we will watch that as well. All auditioners will be given a short translation of a monologue into another language and asked to read it.

These auditions are for some of the larger roles so that students can prepare during the summer. Rehearsals will begin in the fall semester. Auditions for other roles will also take place in the fall semester.

Macbeth performs Nov. 13-23, 2008 on the Kennedy Theatre mainstage.
