UHELP presents Surrogates:

DECISION-MAKING, DISCHARGE PLANNING and APPLICATION for LONG-TERM CARE BENEFITS for ADULTS, INCLUDING THOSE WHO LACK CAPACITY

What happens when there has been no legal planning for possible incapacity or when alternatives to guardianship and conservatorship, such as powers of attorney, advance health care directives, and designations or selections of “surrogates” fail?

Moderator: Professor James H. Pietsch

Tuesday, April 10, 2018 ~ 3:00pm

UH Law School ~ Moot Court ~ CEU, CLE credits pending

---

3:30 - 4:30 | PANEL 1

Learn about the roles, responsibilities and limitations of public and private entities charged with assisting and protecting adults, including those who may lack capacity and who need help with decision-making, discharge planning and application for long-term care benefits.

PANELISTS:

- Edie Mayeshiro, Medical Assistance Program Officer, of the Med-QUEST Policy and Program Development Office
- Yvonne Yim, MSW, Director, Office of the Public Guardian
- John McDermott, MSW, Long-Term Care Ombudsman
- Nicole Coglietta, MSW, LSW, CareSift

---

4:30 - 5:30 | PANEL 2

Learn about the basics of legal planning for the future, discharge planning, alternatives to guardianship and conservatorship, including powers of attorney, advance health care directives, and “surrogates” under Hawai‘i law, and the potential effect of proposed statutory changes affecting Med-QUEST applications by “surrogates.”

PANELISTS:

- Scott Suzuki, Attorney-at-Law
- Mernie Miyasato-Crawford, LCSW, Tripler Army Medical
- Sara Tompkinson, LCSW, VA Pacific Islands Health Care System
- Jennifer Kwok, LCSW, Kaiser Permanente Moanalua Medical Center

---

Free Seminar, refreshments provided. Please confirm your attendance.

To contact us: UHELP 956-6544 or UHELP.edu@gmail.com.

The UH Law School is located at 2515 Dole Street / Directions: http://hawaii.edu/uhelp/location.htm

Parking $5 in Parking Structure. Parking in Visitor Stalls $2 per half hour.