THE ELDER LAW CLINIC
welcomes back
CORAL WONG PIETSCH
Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims

RECENT DECISIONS AND TRENDS
AT THE CAVC

10:00am • Wednesday, November 8, 2023
William S. Richardson School of Law, UH Law School

PROGRAM

Introductory Remarks
by Professor James Pietsch

Recent Decisions and Trends at the CAVC
by Judge Coral Wong Pietsch

Q&A / with the Judge and the Professor

ABOUT JUDGE PIETSCH

Nominated by President Barack Obama and appointed a Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims (CAVC) in 2012.

CAVC is part of the United States judiciary and not part of the Department of Veterans Affairs. The process for appeals is complex yet veteran-friendly. This is a special opportunity to learn about the unique characteristics of the CAVC and about very important updates on recent cases at the CAVC and how they may have an effect on veterans.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CAVC

Professor James H. Pietsch,
Director, UH Elder Law Program (UHELP)

Professor Pietsch teaches Law, Aging and Medicine, Elder Law Clinic, and Health Law: Bioethics. He also holds a Joint Appointment at the School of Medicine.

The Elder Law Clinic meets in the new Law School Clinical Building: contact UHELP at (808) 956-6544