From Spring 2013, all BA Studio and Art History majors must take and pass ART 409 (Graduation Portfolio) on their final semester. Passing of ART 409 entails completing the following:

Art History Majors Portfolio

should include a resume, 3 to 5 course papers.

Studio Art Majors Portfolio

should include a resume, 10 to 12 digital images of artwork (produced primarily in 300-level course or above), an image inventory, and one academic paper, preferably on a topic related to art and culture.

Portfolios should be submitted to the ART office during the student's final semester prior to the last day of instructions.

- 1- Uploaded onto a flashdrive
- 2- All text documents should be in PDF formats.
- 3- Digital Images should be formatted as JPEG (RGB) files. Save images at approximately 1024 x 768 pixels and no larger than 10MB. Place all images into a single folder. Name the image files alphabetically or numerically consistent with the image inventory.
- 4- Time- or Web-Based Work, Video, Sound, and Animation can be submitted on CD or DVD as Mac OS X compatible .mov, .mp3, .mp4 formats.
- 5- Provide a URL for web-based work. Image Inventory should identify each image or time-based work by title, date, medium, size, and other appropriate information.

Templates for Resume and Image Inventory can be found at <https://hawaii.edu/art/degree-programs>
