Art & Architecture of Thailand (ART 490C)
Spring 2022, MWF 10:30-11:20 am
Writing Intensive Focus
Professor Paul Lavy (paul.lavy@hawaii.edu)

This course provides an introduction to the art and architecture of Thailand from prehistory to the 21st century through the study of architecture, sculpture, painting, metalwork, ceramics, and modern/contemporary Thai art. Artistic developments are examined in terms of technology, style, social and historical contexts, and the main religions that have shaped the culture and history of Thailand (Hinduism and Buddhism).

Prerequisite: ART 175 or instructor consent
