II. Department of Art and Art History Mission Statement [2/9/2007]

The Department of Art and Art History is committed to research and teaching in the visual arts with awareness of Hawai'i's unique role in the Asian-Pacific region. It serves students at the undergraduate and graduate levels, with the aim of cultivating critically, technically and historically informed scholars, practitioners and audiences of the visual arts. The department serves as a resource to cultural institutions, Hawai'i's communities, our professional colleagues and the populations of the Asia-Pacific region, through publications exhibitions, and other public programs. We support artistic inquiry as one of the basic disciplines of human endeavor.

III. MA Program General Description and Objectives

The Art History MA is designed to develop art historical knowledge, with an emphasis on Asia; knowledge of art historical theory and critical approaches to the study of Art History and visual culture; and research skills and methodology. We offer specialties in the following areas: (1) China, (2) Japan, (3) South/Southeast Asia, and (4) Modern/Contemporary. Typically, the student's Primary Faculty Advisor is the faculty member responsible for the curriculum in the student's area of concentration. The MA program is a full-time, 36-credit degree. Time to degree is typically 3 years (6 sequential semesters).

IV. Statement of Student and Faculty Responsibilities.

- A. Students and faculty are expected to behave in a professional manner at all times.
- B. Faculty and students should maintain a working culture of cooperation and productivity, and students should develop self-initiative and independence in their working habits.
- C. Students are responsible for managing progress through their own degree. It is the student's responsibility to keep abreast of all forms and deadlines and to initiate all degree-related procedures.
- D. Because graduate students must be committed to their program of study and because they are role models for other students, they are expected to attend all classes and seminars, as well to participate actively in related departmental and campus events (e.g., visiting speakers, exhibitions, etc.).
- E. Faculty are responsible for advising students and must make themselves available to students as appropriate.
- F. Progress through the degree is contingent on the approval of the Faculty Advisor, Art History Graduate Program Director, and Thesis Committee.

V. MA Degree Admission/Application Requirements

Please refer to the application requirements available from the Graduate Division:

<https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/how-to-apply/>. MA applicants must have a Bachelor's degree (or equivalent) at the time of matriculation into the program. Preference is given to applicants with a BA degree in Art History (or an equivalent amount of Art History coursework). Applicants with a BA in a related field (e.g., Anthropology, Asian Studies, Religion, etc.) will also be considered for admission. At the discretion of the Graduate Faculty, applicants with insufficient undergraduate preparation may be admitted to the program with the condition that they will be required to take a specified number of "deficiency" courses. No credit from these deficiency courses will be applied to MA degree requirements; deficiency courses must be taken in addition to the 36 credits required for the MA degree.

Applications are considered for Fall admission only; there is no Spring admission. The deadline for all MA application materials is January 15. Completed applications, academic transcripts, GRE general test scores, and (if applicable) TOEFL scores must be sent directly to the Graduate Division along with the application fee. Official transcripts must be sent directly from the academic institution of origin to the University of Hawai'i's Graduate Division. Copies of transcripts, faxed, e-mailed or hand delivered to the DAAH will not be accepted. Incomplete applications will not be forwarded from the Graduate Division to the DAAH for review. An online application can be accessed at <http://apply.hawaii.edu>.

In addition, the Department requires special supporting materials that should be sent under separate cover directly to the Graduate Chair, the Department of Art and Art History, 2535 McCarthy Mall, Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822, by the January 15 deadline. These supporting materials must include:

- A. Statement of Objective Form available from the Graduate Division website:
<http://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/content/forms>.

The Statement of Objectives should include the applicant's expected area of concentration: (1) China, (2) Japan, (3) South/Southeast Asia, or (4) Modern/Contemporary.

- B. A 10-page writing sample, e.g., an art history research paper or other formal written work.
- C. Three letters of recommendation from art history professors, professionals in the field (e.g., museum curators), and / or individuals who have worked closely with the applicant in art history related activities and are well acquainted with the applicant. There are no forms or online submissions for letters of recommendation.
- D. If the applicant would like to be considered for an ART 175/176/302 Graduate Teaching Assistantship, an application form for the GA-ship must be submitted with the general application. The application guidelines and forms are available on the DAAH website:
<https://hawaii.edu/art/degree-programs/> (scroll to bottom of page to find the links). Please also see Section 7 of this handbook for more information on this and other Graduate Assistantships.

VI. International Student Information

Please refer to the International Student Services Website www.hawaii.edu/issmanoa. To qualify for admission to the MA program, non-native speakers of English must submit official TOEFL scores with minimum scores of 550 (Paper-based) / 213 (Computer-based) / 79 (Internet-based) or above. International students applying for teaching assistantships must have minimum TOEFL scores of 600/100 (paper/Internet), with subtest scores of 25 for listening and 25 for speaking.

VII. Financial Assistance

For tuition rates, see <http://www.hawaii.edu/tuition/>.

Graduate Achievement Scholarships (GAS)

Each term, the Graduate Division allocates a set dollar amount to be used for Graduate Achievement Scholarships (GAS). The DAAH elected to divide these GAS funds to partially support all eligible students. Full-time graduate students with a 3.5 GPR (Grade Point Record) or better are eligible to apply. The GPR earned as a BFA or BA will be used to determine eligibility for first year grads. Applications are available at the end of each term (October and March).

Graduate Assistantships (GAs)

DAAH offers a range of Graduate Assistantships (GAs) annually. These are paid employment positions that include a full tuition waiver and an annual stipend of approximately $17,500 (2018–2019; subject to change) and require approximately 20 hours of work per week. The period of employment is from duty day, one week prior to the Fall semester, through Spring commencement. Candidates must be incoming or continuing students in ART of good academic standing. The GA positions are determined based on the departmental needs. They are competitive and may require specialized training or skills. Examples of positions include: Teaching Assistants for ART 113 (Introductory Drawing) and Teaching Assistants for ART 175/176 (Survey of Global Art History I & II), (ART 175/302 (Survey of Global Art History I / Introduction to Contemporary Critical Theory) Lab and Safety Support (Ceramic/Glass/Metal/Wood Studios), Technical Support for Computer Labs, Curatorial Assistant (Gallery), Exhibition Installation Assistant (Gallery).

Applications from incoming MA students are accepted through the same submission platform at the time of application to the MA degree program. Incoming and continuing MA students should apply in accordance with the instructions and deadlines found here: <https://hawaii.edu/art/degree-programs/> (scroll to bottom of page to find the links). Students are encouraged to apply for all GA positions for which they are qualified, not only those in their areas of specialization.

Graduate Travel Grants

Graduate travel grants are available through the Graduate Student Organization (GSO). Contact www.gso.hawaii.edu for more information and downloadable application forms.

Other Employment Opportunities

Consult the Mānoa Career Center, <http://manoa.hawaii.edu/careercenter/> for information about jobs in the community and on-campus. Their office is located in Queen Lili'uokalani Center for Student Services, Room 212, (808) 956-7007, email: careers@hawaii.edu.

Other Financial Assistance

Each year, a range of competitive scholarships are available within the DAAH. Application information may be obtained each Spring through the Art Office, uhart@hawaii.edu. Additional information about fellowships, assistantships and grants from other sources may be obtained from the Graduate Division's Scholarship and Fellowship Office, Spalding Hall 357, 2540 Maile Way, Honolulu, HI 96822, <http://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/content/financial-support>.

VIII. Duties of Art History GA positions

A. ART 175/176 (Survey of Global Art History I & II)

Art 175 and 176 are introductory and sequential Art History courses offered in alternate semesters (175 in Fall semesters and 176 in Spring semesters). 175/176 GAs are expected to perform the following duties: serve as teaching assistant to supervisory professors and assist in appropriate course-related duties and activities; attend weekly training and planning meetings; attend all general lectures given by the supervisory professors; lead discussion/review sessions (each week, typically three sessions with approximately 18 students per session); hold office hours to meet with students (typically one hour per week); maintain Laulima course websites; create assignments, discussion sessions with PowerPoint presentations, and tests; perform grading duties and assign, record, and maintain course grades. Opportunities may be available for GAs to create and deliver lectures in their areas of specialization to the general class.

B. ART 175 (Survey of Global Art History I) and ART 302 (Introduction to Contemporary Critical Theory)

Art 175 (Fall semesters), is an introductory art history course. Art 302 (Spring semesters) offers an examination of significant themes and issues in contemporary critical theory as they relate to the production and reception of art. Fall semester duties: serve as teaching assistant to supervisory professors and assist in appropriate course-related duties and activities; attend weekly training and planning meetings; attend all general lectures given by the supervisory professors; lead discussion/review sessions (each week, typically three sessions with approximately 18 students per session); hold office hours to meet with students (typically one hour per week); maintain Laulima course websites; create assignments, discussion sessions with PowerPoint presentations, and tests; perform grading duties and assign, record, and maintain course grades. Opportunities may be available for GAs to create and deliver lectures in their areas of specialization to the general class. Spring semester duties: attend all ART 302 general lectures given by the supervisory professor; lead review sections (3 times over the course of the semester); maintain Laulima course websites; create assignments; perform grading duties and assign, record, and maintain course grades. Opportunities may be available for GAs to create and deliver lectures in their areas of specialization to the general class.

IX. Policy regarding Transfer of Credits

Any student who is admitted with course deficiencies is not permitted to transfer any credits taken prior to the first semester of the graduate program (this includes any “graduate” coursework taken as an undergraduate or an unclassified graduate student).

If applicable, a maximum of 6 credits may be credited towards MA degree requirements with the approval of the student’s Primary Faculty Advisor and the Art History Graduate Program Director. The combined total of applicable credits received as “undergraduate excess credits” (see below) or as an unclassified graduate student may not exceed 6 credits. These transferred credits may be counted toward “Elective” credit only. Under no circumstance may they be applied to graduate seminar requirements.

Undergraduate Excess Credits: Undergraduate seniors at UHM may be able to earn up to 6 credits toward the MA degree for certain courses completed during the final two semesters of their undergraduate study, provided that the following conditions are met: These courses must be 400-level and above, not required for the undergraduate degree (i.e., in excess of the bachelor’s degree requirements), the final grade must be a “B” or higher, and the transfer of credits must be approved and recommended for transfer by the student’s Primary Faculty Advisor, the Art History Graduate Program Director, and the Graduate Chair. The decision whether or not to accept transfer credits is entirely up to the discretion of these three faculty members. Credits earned for directed reading/research (399/499) are not applicable for transfer. Undergraduate excess credits from other colleges/universities may not be applied to the MA degree.

In either case, the application to transfer excess credits takes place after the student's Thesis Proposal is approved, at which point the student contacts the Primary Faculty Advisor and Art History Graduate Program Director to file a "Petition to Transfer Credits" to accompany the filing of Form I (Pre-Candidacy Progress).

X. MA Degree Requirements

The orientation of the MA is towards independent and original research in Art History. It is preparation for an academic focus in the field of Art History and for further formal study in a PhD program leading to an academic career in, e.g., college/university teaching, museum curatorial work, etc. The program requires that students take 6 credits of ART 700 (Thesis Research). Students must submit and defend an original and polished Thesis of art historical research, which can be constructed as a traditional thesis paper, a curatorial thesis or exhibition plan, or other appropriate project. The Thesis Committee consists of a minimum of three faculty members, at least two of whom must be Art History graduate faculty. Students intending to engage in studies leading to the PhD are strongly encouraged to complete course work beyond the minimum MA requirements.

Requirements:

- A. 36 credits of coursework. At least 18 of the 36 credits must be in courses numbered above 600 and must include the following: ART 670 (Art Historical Methodology; 3 credits); three graduate seminars in Art History (total of 9 credits); and 6 credits of ART 700 (Thesis Research). The remaining 18 credits are electives.
- B. Competency in one research language through the minimum equivalent of two years (4 semesters) of university-level language coursework. Language coursework does not apply towards the 36 credits required for the MA degree.
- C. Submission and Defense of a Thesis Proposal that conveys a student's preliminary knowledge of a given area of focus.
- D. Submission and Defense of an original and polished Thesis

The following stipulations apply:

- A. The total number of 699 and 700 credits applied toward degree requirements shall not exceed 12 (i.e., a maximum of 6 credits of 699 may be taken).
- B. All elective credit must be earned in courses numbered 400 and above.
- C. Up to 9 credits, with Primary Advisor's approval, may be earned in appropriate advanced courses outside of the Art History program. This applies to relevant Studio Art courses as well as to courses outside of the DAAH. The combined total of non-Art History courses applied to the MA degree may not exceed 9 credits.

- D. Concurrent Graduate Certificates (e.g., Historic Preservation, International Cultural Studies, Museum Studies, etc.)
1. Students considering pursuing a graduate certificate with the MA degree should consult with the Art History Graduate Director. Concurrent enrollment may extend the time to degree by one or two semesters.
 2. Students who opt to pursue a graduate certificate are responsible for knowing and following the requirements of the respective certificate program. For those programs administered by the American Studies Department, including Museum Studies, see <http://manoa.hawaii.edu/amst/certificate-admissions-guidelines/>
 3. To apply to a certificate program, a current degree-seeking graduate student at UHM needs to submit a completed Concurrent Graduate Certificate Program Application Form to Graduate Division: <https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/forms/>

XI. Research Language Requirement

All Art History MA students must fulfill the research language requirement. The purpose of the language requirement is to develop the tools necessary for research in the student's area of concentration. Choice of language should be based on the student's research interests/goals, should be determined in consultation with the student's Faculty Advisor(s), and must be approved by the student's Primary Faculty Advisor. The language requirement can be fulfilled through a language exam or by successfully completing four semesters (two years / 12 credits) of language coursework with at least a grade of "C" in each semester. At the discretion of the Primary Faculty Advisor and Art History Graduate Program Director, equivalent credit toward the language requirement may be earned through intensive language programs. Students are encouraged, and may be expected, to pursue language study beyond this minimum requirement.

International students from Asia/Pacific countries may, at the discretion of the Art History Graduate Program Director, have the foreign language requirement waived if they plan to concentrate on their native country or region. If they elect to concentrate on a country/language other than their own, they must fulfill the aforementioned requirements.

XII. ART 699 - Directed Work

ART 699 courses are "Elective" (only) courses that are intended for advanced individual research projects and/or advanced tutorial covering content not available in regular courses. They must be supervised by a Graduate Faculty member and must be approved by the Graduate Chair. Interested students must (1) obtain approval from the supervising Graduate Faculty member and (2) present a written proposal of the specific project, calendar, and means of evaluation to the Graduate Chair. The proposal form is available on the DAAH website and in the DAAH main office. Please note that the Graduate Division limits the number of combined credits of 699/700 to 12 credits. This means that students can take a maximum of 6 credits of 699.

XIII. Residency

The MA program is a full-time in-residence program. MA students are required to be in residence at the University of Hawai'i during the semesters in which they submit their Thesis Proposal (typically the 4th or 5th semester) and during the semester in which they defend and submit their MA Thesis (typically the 6th semester). Students must be physically present at the University of Hawai'i for their MA Thesis defense.

XIV. Student Progress towards the MA Degree

- A. Typical time to degree: The MA program is a full-time, 36-credit degree. Typical time to degree is 3 years (6 sequential semesters). Students who are able to satisfy all or part of the research language requirement upon entering the program may finish in 2-2.5 years (4 or 5 sequential semesters).
- B. Minimum time to degree: The absolute minimum time to degree is 2 years (4 semesters). Students who enter the program with the expectation of fulfilling their research language requirement through coursework should expect a 3-year time to degree.
- C. Maximum time to degree: Extensions past the 6-semester guideline will be considered only in the following appropriate circumstances:
 - 1. Documented medical condition and/or family/personal crisis
 - 2. Thesis Chair on sabbatical/leave in final semester
- D. Unapproved extension past the 6-semester guideline will be considered as failure to make progress in the MA program and may be cause for dismissal from the program.

XV. Academic Leave of Absence

All students must maintain full time status unless they are on approved Academic Leave as authorized by the Graduate Division. For policies, deadlines, and the Petition for Leave of Absence form, see <https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/leave-of-absence/>. In addition, students must obtain approval for a Leave of Absence from the DAAH by submitting a request in writing to the Graduate Chair by these deadlines: May 1 for Fall semester leave and December 1 for Spring semester leave. The Graduate Committee will make a recommendation to the Graduate Division based on the student's academic standing and reasons for leave.

Students who plan on consulting university faculty or using university facilities or staff services should not request leave; students on leave shall have no access to studio or office space. Students should be aware that Academic Leaves may disrupt their progress through the program (e.g., required courses or seminars that are not held every semester).

Note: Students who do not return from leave on the specified date will have to apply for readmission. Students who wish to return sooner from an approved leave should contact the Office of Graduate Student Services by these deadlines: April 1 for Fall semesters and October 1 for Spring semesters.

XVIII. MA Program Procedures/Gateways

It is the student's responsibility to keep abreast of all forms and deadlines and to initiate all degree-related procedures. All forms required by the Graduate Division can be downloaded at:

<http://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/content/forms>

A. Initial Advising

1. When?: Prior to the first day of instruction of the first semester of matriculation, at a time agreed upon by the student and Primary Advisor.
2. Upon entry in to the program, each graduate student is assigned a Primary Faculty Advisor according to one of the major areas of concentration (China, Japan, South/Southeast Asia, Modern/Contemporary). The Primary Advisor must be a tenured or tenure-track faculty member in the UH Manoa Department of Art and Art History. The Primary Faculty Advisor will meet with the student prior to classes to determine coursework for the first semester, including language study. The Primary Faculty Advisor, in consultation with the student and the Art History Graduate Program Director, will also discuss a preliminary graduate committee. Students are required to schedule a formal advising session with their Primary Faculty Advisor every semester to determine coursework for the next semester.

B. Preliminary Advising Conference

1. Required Form: Preliminary Conference Form (intra-departmental)
2. When?: In or prior to the first week of the first semester of matriculation
3. Requirements and Procedure: The student meets with the Art History Graduate Program Director and another member of the Art History Graduate Faculty. Students are given an introduction to the MA program, expectations, and procedures. This is also an opportunity for the student to ask questions. At this time, potential deficiencies and transferrable credits will be discussed. If applicable, deficiencies are identified together with the additional courses required to remedy them. Such coursework must be completed (Form I) before being granted Admission to Candidacy (Form II). No credit from these deficiency courses will be applied to MA degree requirements; deficiency courses must be taken in addition to the 36 credits required for the MA degree. Potentially transferrable credits (up to a maximum of 6 credits) are identified at this time. These are not formally transferred until after the student's Thesis Proposal has been approved (Form I) and has been admitted to Candidacy for the MA degree (Form II).

C. Required Form: Approval to Propose Thesis (intra-departmental)

1. When?: At the beginning of the semester in which the Thesis Proposal Defense will occur (typically the beginning of the 4th semester of the program). Because several rounds of drafts and revision are typically required, students should expect to initiate the process with their Primary Advisor at the beginning of the semester in which s/he will defend the proposal.
2. Requirements and Procedure: To be qualified to submit a Thesis Proposal, students must first schedule a consultation meeting with the Art History Graduate Program director to verify that they are making the required progress and to confirm that they have (1) taken three graduate seminars in Art History (9 credits) and (2) fulfilled the research language requirement (through language exam or two years of coursework). These requirements may be met prior to, or concurrent with, the semester in which the Thesis Proposal is or will be submitted. If concurrently enrolled in the fourth semester of language study, the student must provide evidence of successful progress before the Thesis Proposal can be submitted.

D. Thesis Proposal (equivalent to a General or Qualifying Exam):

1. When?: The Thesis Proposal typically takes place toward the end of the 4th semester of the Art History MA program. Please note, that the Thesis Proposal presentation/defense must take place during the academic year; it may NOT be scheduled during the Summer.
2. Requirements and Procedure: Once the Approval to Propose Thesis form has been granted by the Art History Graduate Program Director, the student should consult with the Primary Advisor to compose a Thesis Proposal Committee of three members. The Primary Advisor is expected to be the Chair of the Thesis Proposal Committee, and at least two of the three members of the committee (including the Thesis Proposal Committee Chair) must be UH Manoa Art History Graduate Faculty. If the Primary Advisor is unable or unwilling to serve as Chair, or if the student has justifiable reasons for wanting another member of the Art History Graduate Faculty to serve as committee chair, a petition must be submitted to the Art History Program Graduate Director for review and approval or rejection. If the petition directly involves the Art History Program Graduate Director (e.g., a conflict of interest when the Director is either the potentially outgoing or incoming Chair), the petition is subject to review by the DAAH Graduate Chair.
3. Content: The student should discuss the content and bibliography of the Thesis Proposal with the Primary Faculty Advisor and the rest of the Thesis Proposal Committee members. Proposals can be made for academic projects, curatorial projects, or other appropriate research initiatives in the field of art history. The proposal is an initial statement of intention and constitutes the groundwork for the further development of the thesis. In the proposal, students should state the major goals of their research, situate their topic's significance through historiographical and/or literature review, indicate their methodological approach to the subject, and provide an anticipated timeline for the completion of the thesis.
4. The proposal document itself should be 20 pages in length, plus bibliography. All proposals should begin with a cover sheet indicating the proposed thesis topic or title, student's name, date submitted for approval, and names of committee members.
5. The main content of the proposal should include:
 - a. Introduction: This should act as a statement of focus and intent. What are the major goals and objectives of the thesis? What are the key questions to be addressed in the thesis? What issues in the current body of knowledge related to the topic will the thesis consider? What is the scope of the topic, including, as appropriate, reasons for the inclusion and exclusion of materials?
 - b. Historiography: Situate the thesis within a broad art historical scope and provide a literature review of sources related to the proposed topic. What scholarly work has already been done that will inform and impact the argument of the thesis? How will the thesis position itself within that conversation?

- c. Resources: What are the key resources (art works, books, articles/essays, archival sources, interviews, exhibitions, museum collections, site visits, etc.) that will be used in the thesis? Are there anticipated difficulties in accessing or interpreting any of these resources?
 - d. Methodology: What is the conceptual approach taken in the thesis? What phases of study and specific tasks are involved in this approach? What theoretical perspectives will be employed?
 - e. Timeline: What are the approximate dates for completing the major phases of the thesis (including the public presentation and final delivery to the Graduate Division)? Please keep in mind that a minimum of two full weeks must be allowed for secondary readers to review the draft submitted prior to the public presentation. Do not underestimate the time necessary for final editing and formatting of the thesis.
 - f. Bibliography: This should include an annotated section of the 20 most important sources for your thesis, plus additional (unannotated) sources consulted or expected to be used.
 - g. Format: The required format for references and citations is the Chicago Manual of Style. Please also consult Wayne Booth, Gregory Colomb, and Joseph Williams, The Craft of Research, Third Ed. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2009.
6. Thesis Proposal Presentation: The student shall present the proposal to a meeting of the Thesis Proposal committee after the proposal draft has been reviewed by the committee members. It is the student's responsibility to schedule a time and place for this meeting, in consultation with the committee members. At the meeting the student will make a brief illustrated presentation (approximately 15 minutes in length) to emphasize major aspects of the proposal. Approximately 45-60 minutes of discussion and critique will follow. The meeting is intended to be a working session at which the student may be offered a variety of suggestions.
7. Outcomes: Four outcomes of the Thesis Proposal Defense are possible.
- a. Approval: A majority of members on the committee agree that the proposal is satisfactory as submitted.
 - b. Approved as Modified: If the student making the proposal and committee members agree on modifications to the proposal, the proposal is approved as modified. These modifications will be written by the Chair of the student's committee on the intra-departmental Thesis Proposal Outcome form (see below).
 - c. Resubmit: If major problems are discovered in the proposal, it must be resubmitted and the meeting repeated at a time agreed upon by the student and all committee members, typically during the following semester. Resubmissions must take place during the academic year and may not take place during the Summer.
 - d. Non approval: If a resubmitted thesis still does not meet approval, students will be dismissed from the program. The maximum allowable Thesis Proposal Defenses is two.

- E. Required Form: Thesis Proposal Outcome (intra-departmental)
1. When?: Upon completion of a Thesis Proposal, whatever the outcome.
 2. Requirements and Procedure: The Chair of the Thesis Proposal Defense Committee must submit the Thesis Proposal Outcomes form to the Art History Graduate Program Director. This form must be signed by each member of the Thesis Proposal Committee and by the student. If the outcome of the Thesis Proposal is “Approval” or “Approved as Modified”, this form should be submitted together with Form I (below) to the Art History Graduate Program Director, who will then forward Form I to the Graduate Chair for approval/signature. If the outcome of the Thesis Proposal is “Resubmit”, the student must repeat the Thesis Proposal process (see 7c above).
- F. Required Form I: Master’s Plan A – Pre-Candidacy Progress (Graduate Division form)
1. When and Why?: This form is submitted to the Graduate Division to verify that all deficiencies are fulfilled, the research language requirement has been met, the Thesis Proposal has been defended and approved by the committee, and the Thesis Proposal Outcomes form has been submitted and approved. For the purposes of Form I, the Thesis Proposal Defense is equivalent to “General or Qualifying Exam”. Upon completion, Form I should be submitted to the Art History Graduate Program Director, who will then forward it to the Graduate Chair for approval/signature.
 2. If applicable: Petition to Transfer Credits: Upon successful completion of the Thesis Proposal and in conference with the Primary Faculty Advisor and Graduate Chair, a student may petition to transfer post baccalaureate credits into the MA (a maximum of 6 credits). The student, together with the Primary Faculty Advisor, is responsible for completing “Form I: Pre-Candidacy Progress,” and then submits it to the Graduate Chair. A petition to transfer credits may be attached, and should be signed by both the Faculty Advisor and Graduate Chair. Graduate Division makes the final determination on what credits are deemed transferable.
- G. Required Form II: Master’s Plan A – Advance to Candidacy (Graduate Division form)
1. When and Why?: This form is submitted immediately after the Form I. It is used for approval of the research topic and to appoint the Thesis Committee. The Primary Advisor is expected to be the Chair of the Thesis Committee, and a majority of the members of the committee (including the Chair) must be UH Manoa Art History Graduate Faculty in Art History. The composition of the Thesis Committee can, but does not have to, be the same as the Thesis Proposal Committee. If the Primary Advisor is unable or unwilling to serve as Chair, or if the student has justifiable reasons for wanting another member of the Art History Graduate Faculty to serve as committee chair, please see section L below (Changes in Thesis Committee).
 2. Form II requires the signatures of all Thesis Committee members. It should be submitted to the Art History Graduate Program Director, who will then forward it to the Graduate Chair for approval/signature. Registration in Thesis 700 credit units is allowed only after this form and all necessary attachments have been received and approved by the Graduate Division.

H. Thesis:

1. The thesis is a scholarly contribution to knowledge that investigates a specific art historical argument, theory, or set of questions. It presents research conducted by the student under the supervision and guidance of the thesis Committee Chair. Graduate-level thesis work should create new knowledge or understanding, as well as demonstrate the student's mastery in a given area that signals the beginning of the transition from apprentice to peer.
2. The thesis must adhere to all requirements stipulated by the Graduate Division: <https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/thesis-dissertation/> and by the Style Policy: <https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/style-policy/>. The complete Style & Policy Guide can be downloaded here: https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/wp-content/uploads/tdstylepolicy_e.pdf
3. Thesis submission guidelines can be found here: https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/proquest-etd-submission-publication/
4. The final Thesis submission becomes a permanent and official addition to the body of scholarship undertaken at UHM. Theses are permanently archived in the University of Hawai'i's Hamilton Library: <http://scholarspace.manoa.hawaii.edu/handle/10125/20024>.
5. Students are responsible for understanding and meeting the university's deadlines regarding thesis submission. In order to allow a reasonable amount of time for the revision process, it is recommended that the student present the first draft of the paper to the Thesis Committee at least eight weeks in advance of the Graduate Division's deadline for final submission. In the rare case that the Thesis is not completed by the end of the sixth semester of matriculation, the student is responsible for taking 1 credit of ART 700 (Thesis) during a later semester in which s/he intends to graduate. This is necessary in order to formally file the Thesis with the Office of Graduate Education. Please note: It is entirely up to the discretion of the Thesis Committee Chair whether a student may be permitted to submit the final draft of the Thesis to the Office of Graduate Education during the Summer.

I. Thesis Defense:

The Thesis Defense is an oral examination (open to the public), during which the author demonstrates to the Thesis Committee satisfactory command of all aspects of the work presented and, if applicable, other related subjects. The Thesis Defense is typically 1.5 hours in length. It begins with an oral presentation by the student (typically about 20 minutes in length), in which s/he provides an overview of the thesis arguments, methodology, evidence utilized, conclusions, and prospects for further inquiry. The presentation must be accompanied by images. The Thesis Committee then poses questions to the student to assess the student's mastery over the area of her/his thesis. Time permitting, the Thesis Chair may invite the public attending to ask questions and comment at the end of the defense. The Thesis must be approved by the majority of the committee. Please note: The Thesis Defense may NOT be scheduled during the Summer.

J. Required Form III: Master's Plan A - Thesis Evaluation (Graduate Division form)

When and Why?: This form reports the Thesis Committee's approval or disapproval of the student's Thesis and the student's ability to defend the Thesis. It requires the signature of all Thesis Committee members. Immediately after the Thesis Defense and no later than 3 weeks prior to the Graduate Division's Thesis due date (consult the UH Manoa Academic Calendar), Form III should be submitted to the Art History Graduate Program Director, who will then forward it to the Graduate Chair for approval/signature.

K. Required Form IV: Master's Plan A – Thesis Submission (Graduate Division form)

When and Why?: This form is completed when the Thesis manuscript has been approved in its entirety by the Thesis Chair and a majority of the Thesis Committee (signatures required). The student submits Form IV with the final digital copy of the manuscript directly to the Graduate Division by the due date in the UH Manoa Academic Calendar. This form should NOT be submitted to either the Art History Graduate Program Director or the Graduate Chair.

L. Changes in Thesis Committees (if applicable): Students are encouraged to discuss the rationale for requesting a change in Thesis Committees with all members of that committee. Requests for changes to the Thesis Committee (including changes involving the Thesis Committee Chair) must be submitted in writing by the student to the Art and Art History Department Graduate Chair. The Graduate Chair shall inform the faculty member/s involved that a request has been made and provide an opportunity for response from the student. The Graduate Committee shall approve or deny the request. If approved, a Petition to Revise Thesis Committee form must be submitted to the Graduate Division: https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/wp-content/uploads/revise_committee_masters.pdf

M. Required exit portfolio

All graduating MA students must register for ART 409, a zero-credit exit portfolio course, in their final semester. Students must submit the portfolio to the Associate Chair of the department in order to receive credit for ART 409, which is required for graduation. The portfolio should contain the following documents in PDF form, saved to a CD, thumb drive, or other physical media:

1. Full academic CV
2. A digital copy of the final MA thesis as filed with the Graduate Division (including all images)
3. If relevant, evidence of museum or exhibition work (brochures, label texts, exhibition announcements, etc.)

XIX. Academic Advising

Advising is mandatory each semester. Each graduate student must make an appointment with his/her Faculty Advisor to review the planned course of study (April for Fall semester and October for Spring semester). There is a significant amount of freedom in selecting courses that support individualized academic interests, especially in the “Elective” category. It is the graduate student’s responsibility to research the courses they want to enroll in and to gain the necessary prerequisites.

Graduate students have access to their files and should check it regularly to insure they are accurate and up-to-date. Graduate students are expected to be familiar with the content of their files. Questions or problems in regard to course requirements for the MA should be discussed first with the student's Primary Faculty Advisor or the Art History Graduate Program Director, then with the Graduate Chair, and finally, if necessary, the Chair of DAAH may be consulted. Further assistance or information can be obtained from the Graduate Division.

XX. Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution

The University has established both a Student Conduct Code for determining violations of academic conduct by students and an Academic Grievance Procedure for adjudicating alleged violations of recognized graduate student rights and responsibilities. The first venue to resolve such conflicts informally or formally rests within the academic unit. Because the Faculty Advisor/graduate student relationship is deemed so important, special attention should be given to the resolution of conflicts between a graduate student and her/his Faculty Advisor. The website for the UH Manoa Student Conduct Code is http://www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code/. The website for Graduate Student Academic Grievance Procedures is <https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/formal-grievance/>.

XXI. Academic Honesty

Acts of dishonesty, include, but are not limited, to the following:

- A. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty.
Cheating is an act of academic dishonesty and includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student body; and (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion. Plagiarism is also an act of academic dishonesty and includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.
- B. Furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office.
- C. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

XXII. Graduate Arts Council

The Graduate Arts Council (GAC) is the department recognized voting body of DAAH graduate students governed as a University Recognized Organization (URO) to decide graduate student matters within the department. One elected Graduate Art Council (GAC) officer will represent the DAAH graduate students on the Graduate Committee and faculty meetings. The GAC representative is a full voting member of the Graduate Committee (on general policy recommendations but not individual student petitions) and an attendee of faculty meetings. In all cases the GAC member will act as a contributing member and active liaison with the GAC and is to report back to graduate students on important developments. GAC officers are elected in April of Spring Semester for the upcoming academic year by the ART graduate students. The new officers are responsible for assuming control of the GAC in all matters prior to the completion of fall semester. The GAC also has representation on the Graduate Student Organization (GSO) which is the campus wide organization that represents all graduate programs and students.
