

University of Hawaii at Manoa
Joint Event 2013
National Museum of Japanese History

Public Lecture
Discovering Historical Parades and Processions from China, Korea, and Ryukyu during the Edo Period
February 10 (Sunday), 2013
1:00 – 4:30
Center for Korean Studies Auditorium

- 1:00-1:10 Welcoming (Gregg Geary & Joyce Chinen) & Logistics (Tokiko Bazzell)
- 1:15-1:35 Dr. Gregory Smits, Pennsylvania State University
Ryukyu and its Geo-cultural Context
- 1:40-2:20 Dr. Hiroshi Kurushima, National Museum of Japanese History
(w/interpreter) Early Modern Japan through Parades
- 2:25-3:05 Dr. Manabu Yokoyama, Notre Dame Seishin University (w/interpreter)
*Relations between Japan & Kingdom of the Ryukyus: Role of Ryukyuan
Envoys*
- 3:10-3:50 Dr. John Szostak, UH at Mānoa & Travis Seifman, UC Santa Barbara
Views of Ryukyu: Paintings and Prints in the Hamilton Library Collection
- 3:50-4:25 Q&A, Discussion led by Dr. Mary McDonald
- 4:25-4:30 Closing (Mary McDonald)

