ETHICS IN THE BOARDROOM

6:00 - 7:30 P.M. » WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW, CLASSROOM 2

Register at shidler.hawaii.edu/weinstein | Free Admission | $6 parking after 4 p.m. on campus

What ethical standards should we reasonably expect in the boardroom? How do executives and directors get selected and what should their ethical responsibilities be? What ethical standards should board members be held to? Join Mary Bitterman, and possibly Bernard Osher, to discuss the ethical issues that transpire behind executive doors in both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations.

MARY BITTERMAN

President, Bernard Osher Foundation;
Lead Independent Director,
Bank of Hawaii

BERNARD OSHER

Private Investor; Philanthropist

Will K. Weinstein, money manager and former partner in two very successful investment banking firms, currently leads a post graduate summer course, "Integrity and Ethics in the Real World," at the UHM William S. Richardson School of Law and the Shidler College of Business. This is Weinstein's thirteenth summer teaching the course, introducing special guest speakers to the University and making this learning opportunity available to the public.
