If you're walking around Waikīkī, it's hard to miss an ABC Store. The locally-owned chain of convenience stores is lead by President and CEO, Paul Kosasa. Paul's parents, Sidney and Minnie Kosasa, opened their first store on Waikīkī Beach in 1949. Today, ABC Stores has more than 75 locations in Hawai'i, Las Vegas, Guam and Saipan, employing over 1,400 associates. The company has evolved over the years rolling out new products, approaches and concepts.

Paul is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a degree in Electrical Engineering. He is active in the local community and serves as a board member on various foundations and organizations.
