

Disability Studies in Action:

Practices and Revisions in the Classroom

Spring 2022

Monday, April 18
11:30 am–12:45 pm
Online Event

The Disability Studies Initiative understands educators play a crucial role in shaping disability awareness, expanding the scope of education, and responding to the world shaped by the Covid 19 pandemic. Our roundtable panelists of faculty and lecturers will share concrete practices and innovations for incorporating disability into their curriculum for a more inclusive classroom.

This event is co-sponsored by the Disability Studies Initiative (DSI), the Department of Political Science, and the OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence.

PANELISTS

Katharina Heyer
Moderator,
Political Science

Tom Conway
Director, Instruction
and Education,
Center on Disability
Studies, UH Mānoa

Dax Garcia
Doctoral Candidate,
English, UH Mānoa

Benjamin Lukey
Director, UH Mānoa Uehiro
Academy for Philosophy and Ethics in Education

OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE)

We strive to host inclusive and accessible presentations. Live captioning will be provided. If our presenters agree, we will distribute their slides one day in advance and share a link to the event recording.

To request additional accommodations, please email us before the event. Mahalo!

808-956-6978
cte@hawaii.edu
www.cte.hawaii.edu

Register Online
www.cte.hawaii.edu/events.html