

'IKE LOA: SYMPOSIUM ON POSTSECONDARY TRANSITION OF NEURODIVERGENT STUDENTS HAVING POTENTIAL IN STEM

FEBRUARY 26, 2024

9:00AM - 4:00PM HST

LOCATION: UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI'I AT MĀNOA, CAMPUS BALLROOM CENTER (THIRD FLOOR)

Join widely-known educators, researchers and practitioners from across the globe to

- Understand twice-exceptionality and the characteristics and needs of neurodivergent students having potential in STEM
- Collectively explore latest approaches and resources for working with neurodivergent students
- Apply strategies to support neurodivergent students' learning, postsecondary transition, and work-based learning

For more information, visit <https://pacrim.coe.hawaii.edu/neurodivergent-pre/>

REGISTER NOW

REGISTRATION DEADLINE
FEBRUARY 9, 2024

This symposium is co-sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, Gifted and Talented Education Program funded projects, BEAM and CLD TEAMS, and by the NSF Eddie Bernice Johnson INCLUDES initiative TAPDINTO-STEM
Registration fee is covered by Project BEAM, CLD TEAMS, and NSF INCLUDES