

Kuleana of the Advisory Committee on Presidential Executive Orders

March 7, 2025

Purpose: The Advisory Committee on Presidential Executive Orders is established to review and provide input regarding the impact of presidential executive orders and related guidance to our university community, provide informed counsel on how the university should respond to these directives, and serve as a conduit of communication with the greater UH community.

Responsibilities:

1. Review and Analysis: Discuss presidential executive orders that may affect the university's operations, policies, and community.
2. Impact Assessment: Evaluate the potential and actual impacts of these executive orders on students, faculty, staff, and the broader university community.
3. Recommendations: Discuss appropriate responses and actions to be taken in light of these executive orders with the university president and senior leadership.
4. Communication: Facilitate clear and timely communication with respective university stakeholders regarding the implications of executive orders and the university's stance and actions.
5. Collaboration: Work collaboratively with relevant university departments, legal counsel, and external experts to ensure a comprehensive understanding of response strategies as ultimately determined by UH Officers and Administration.

Membership: The committee will be composed of representatives from various university constituencies and Governance and Certified Student Organizations at the two-year and four-year campuses. This representation will ensure that students, faculty, and staff voices are adequately represented.

Meetings: The committee will meet regularly, with additional meetings to address urgent matters scheduled as needed. Meeting agendas and minutes will be documented and made available to the UH community.

Duration: The committee will operate on an ongoing basis, with periodic reviews to assess its effectiveness and make adjustments as necessary. The committee will be disbanded when the need for such a group is deemed no longer necessary.

Support: Administrative support for the committee will be provided by the Office of the President.
